MIDWEST COOPERATING COMMUNICATIONS

Telecommunications Company rewards Sprint Partner for her support

One of our most loyal and successful wireline sales partners recently recognized a Sprint Partner with its "Support Person of the Year" award for 2017.

Kim Pasqualone, an implementation project manager for Sprint Wireline, is based in Atlanta. She supports Michigan-based Midwest Cooperating Communications Company (MWCC), a Sprint Indirect partner, with global wireline data, voice and security solutions to help them run their business more efficiently. MWCC has been an important partner to Sprint for more than 15 years.

Here's what the MWCC team had to say about her expertise and willingness to go "above and beyond the call of duty":

"Your ability to get the job done and deliver superior results this year has been amazing!! It's an understatement to say that 2017 has been a challenging year, but with your support, we have been able to achieve successful results. We truly appreciate everything that you do!"

In addition to honoring Kim with the person of the year award, MWCC also made a $100 donation in her name to a family it supported during the holidays.

Congratulations to Kim and the Wireline team for providing world-class service to MWCC and its customers!
